MATHEMATICS

Most mathematics textbooks are now offered in an electronic edition available on the iPad. The savings in textbooks is tremendous with the electronic version. All students (except for those enrolled in Pre-Calculus, AP Calculus, and AP Statistics) are welcome to purchase the electronic version for $23.24. Students may choose to purchase the hardcover version of the text if they wish. To purchase the electronic version, visit www.study.intel.com and search with the appropriate ISBN number (books cannot be purchased within the app). The students will be able to open the e-text on the iPad through the Intel Education Study App which should be downloaded from the app store. Be sure to use the login name and password used to purchase the e-text when logging onto the Intel Education Study App.

If students are having difficulty purchasing e-texts, teachers will be available at the start of the year for assistance.
